Father Albert’s bulletin excerpt, “Children are the Big Factor in Building Marriage.”

A teacher asks a student? How old is your dad? 7 years old WHAT? How can he be your dad if he is just 7 years old that’s about your age! He only started to become dad when I was born.

We always think that parents beget children but we don’t realize on the other way around that children begets parents. The parenthood of a couple born only the moment when they have children, there is new aspect, a new dimension. A father’s and mother’s world changed when they get children.

I have seen many couples they have become mature only when they bear children, their love affair intensified when they get children. Children begets grandparents, they are more crazier because of their grandchildren, children they give life to the family.

Give quality time for your children although you will work for your children or you are successful at work, do not let your children hunger for your love.

There is no school for parenting, there is no MA of being mother, seminar of being father, but you will go along the way with the company of your children. “Parenthood is born suddenly when the child is born” to Eddie and Cassie Mills who were recently married at St. Mary!!

Congratulations
